Hogwallow News.

(Kentuckian)

One of the most important occasions of a local nature around Hogwallow is the fact that Poke Eazley is building a new log house on Musket Ridge. It will be located on a gentle rise of the ground, and from his front door Poke and his family can get a pleasing view of their future resting place, the Dog Hill graveyard.

Sap Spradlin has been swindled again, this time by Dock Hooks. Rumor has it that him and Dock bought an umbrella together, and as there are more pretty days than bad ones Dock made him consent to use the umbrella on the good days while Dock will have full control of it when it is raining.

Persons desiring to wear loud sox should wear trousers with bell-bottom legs.

Authors contributing fall poetry should let their hair grow out brow and serene. And they must not omit mention of the fact that while the leaves fall to the ground they do not do so with great noise or undue rapidity but wend their way downward in a round-about manner and settle on the bosom of the earth's dying surface like that many feathers.

Dick Fowler did Not Run Into Tender

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 21.—Capt. Mark Cole, Master of the steamer Dick Fowler, and Pilots Mat Fitcher and Boyace Berryman yesterday evening were exonerated of reckless navigation and violating the pilot's rules by inspectors H. C. Waltz and William J. Hodge, of Memphis.

The charges were brought by Commander L. S. and Duzer, U. S. N., inspector of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth lighthouse districts, who was aboard the lighthouse tender Lily's memorable trip down the Mississippi river with President Roosevelt.

Congressman J. J. Russell, of Missouri, and Pleas Chapman, of Illinois, who were aboard the Dick Fowler, as guests of the Cairo delegation to the waterways convention at Memphis, were among the witnesses who testified yesterday afternoon that Capt. Cole and his crew handled the Dick Fowler in a safe manner and that at no time did the Fowler approach nearer than fifty feet of the Lily. The hearing was held at the Hallday Hotel yesterday afternoon and lasted less than three hours.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor and J. H. Orme, druggists. 50 cents.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Many a Kentucky Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Kentucky. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

Mrs. L. Varalli, living at 923 Fifth St., Louisville, Ky., says: "I am happy to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and other members of my family. I frequently had attacks of backache and kidney trouble before using your remedy, but after using two boxes of the pills the trouble was entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many of my friends for I attribute my present good health to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They certainly do all that is claimed for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
